

Big Woods Voices

Alan Blood, Becky Graber, Will Danforth, Amanda Witman

June 22, 7pm concert $20.00 (5pm pot luck) at Ricki's Place, 292 Main St. Ashfield, MA

the first of 2 summer Village Harmony Camps will also be here, so this is a very special concert

Big Woods Voices unites 4 veteran singers in celebrating their common passion for a cappella harmony: Alan Blood, long-time member of Vermont groups including the Blanche Moyse Chorale, I Cantori, Blue Moon and House Blend; Will Danforth, singer-songwriter, traditional acoustic artist, and the group's arranger/composer; Becky Graber, leader of the Brattleboro Women's Chorus and Animaterra Women's Chorus in Keene; and Amanda Witman, founder and co-leader of the Brattleboro Pub Sing with Tony Barrand.

Reveling in vocal harmony, Big Woods Voices marries singing traditions from around the world with various American roots genres. Danforth concocts original compositions & arrangements where harmony & dissonance dance in riveting yet accessible soundscapes. Imagine lyrical settings of poetry by David Whyte, Mary Oliver, W.B. Yeats, and others; richly-harmonized standards of the American roots lexicon; and completely original compositions. Add gems by musicians such as Pete Sutherland, The Finest Kind & the Stanley Brothers and you have the ear-thrilling experience called Big Woods Voices.

There is limited seating for this fantastic group due to camp being here, so sign up soon to join us for this fabulous evening of food, friends and music. Thank you and much love, Ricki – 413-628-4568
